

SIX SATURDAY NIGHT REDS

- 2011 Tabarrini Colle Grimaldesco $20
Sagrantino
The Colle alle Macchie is a muscular and powerful red, a wine of superb longevity that will get better with age. Powerful aromas of red and black currant, red cherry, black tea leaf and sweet pipe tobacco. Fleshy and gently sweet on entry, then more austere, but offering chewy, savory dark fruit and chocolate-covered espresso bean flavors. Though firmly structured and tannic, this is surprisingly graceful on the long finish.
Was $35 now $20

- 2013 Saviah Petit Verdot $20
Walla Walla This 2013 Walla Walla Valley Malbec is blend of three outstanding vineyards. The wine showcases the best Malbec has to offer. Inky purple color, classic Malbec aromas and flavors of blue fruit, black fruit, savory spice, and cocoa. A big velvety mouthfeel with savory minerality and a long delicious finish.
Was $30, Now $20

- 2004 Château. Grand Corbin Manuel Saint Èmilion Grand Cru $30
82% Merlot, 15% Cabernet Franc, 3% Cabernet Sauvignon
A developed Right Bank red that still is showing its tannins, It has a relatively light texture, the sweet berry fruits balanced with a layer of acidity.

- 2014 Marco Abella Loidana Priorat $35
44% Grenache, 38% Carignan, 18% Cabernet Sauvignon
a blend of the Priorat's two indigenous varieties, Grenache and Carignan with Cabernet Sauvignon adding structure and depth. This wine is smooth on the palate and remains harmonious to the finish. Loidana offers notes of red fruit and black berries with hints of spices.
Organic & Biodynamic

- 2014 Gorman Zachary's Ladder $25
73% Cabernet Sauvignon, 15% Syrah, 12% Petit Verdot
A big lush red blend from a Woodenville wonder. Aged 20 months in 44% new French oak. Aromas of herbs, black fruit, licorice and fruit leather are followed by ample cherry and blackberry flavors.

- 2011 Casa E. di Mirafiore Barolo $40
Nebbiolo
Classic Nebbiolo aromas of red berry, leather, crushed flower and a balsamic note unfold in the glass. The full-bodied palate doles out juicy black cherry, licorice and tobacco alongside firm, refined tannins.

July Saturday Night Selctions - Madrona Wines Monthly

ONE SATURDAY NIGHT WHITE

- 2014 Château. Guiraud Le G ~Bordeaux Blanc Sec $22
50% Sauvignon Blanc, 50% Semillon
A very full ripe Bordeaux Blanc with notes of nectarines along with the more typical citrus notes.
Organic. 13% alcohol by volume

July Saturday Night Selctions - Madrona Wines Monthly