SIX WHITES

- 2015 Waitsburg Cellars, Cheninieres $13
Chenin Blanc
The brain child of wine critic Paul Gregutt, Waitsberg Cellars makes this Chenin Blanc in a dry, unoaked style, with no malolactic fermentation. The wine shows delicate and detailed scents of jasmine and lily flowers, gooseberry, green melon and citrus, followed by lighter flavors of apple and pear. Was $18 now $13

- 2016 Casale del Giglio Bellone Bianco $13
Bellone is a grape variety cited by Pliny the Elder and has been present in the Latium region since Roman times. The wine evokes ripe tropical fruit such as mango and papaya. It is rich, ample and lingering on the palate with light floral, spicy notes, a pronounced acidity and zesty tang.

- 2013 Maurice Ecard Bourgogne Blanc $15
Chardonnay
A full and smooth Burgundy drops in price to make way for the next vintage. Was $22 now $15

- 2016 Iovine Lacryma di Christi del Vesuvio Bianco $14
Caprettone, Falanghina, Greco
The soils (made up of volcanic deposits from eruptions of the Vesuvius) give this blend its distinct character. It is an elegant, floral wine with a slightly acidic, lovely freshness.

- 2016 Château de la Selve Saint Regis $15
Viognier
From low-yield, biodynamic vineyards in l'Ardeche, this Viognier is clean and fresh, with aromas of peach, citrus and a hint of mint, but it's the fine minerality that really distinguishes the Saint Regis. Biodynamic 13% alcohol by volume

- 2016 Château Pajzos Furmint (Tokaji) $13
The bright, fresh and zesty flavors range from grapefruit to apricot with notes of nuts, minerals, and spice. The Furmint has aspects that remind one of Viognier, Pinot Gris, and Sauvignon Blanc, yet it is a unique wine. Its flavors are as appealing as they are original. 11.5% alcohol by volume
