

SIX SATURDAY NIGHT REDS

- 2013 Tintero Barberesco*$24

Nebbiolo

A fresh, ready young Barbaresco with core of cherry and red currant fruit backed by fine, food-friendly tannins and complex notes of rose petals, limestone soil, camphor, and fennel. Notes of violet, cinnamon, and cherry blossoms mark the wine's lingering, smoky, tannin-dusted finish. Bright and generous, yet structured.

- 2013 Bodegas Alto Moncayo Veraton, Campo de Borja*$28

Garnacha

From old-vine Grenache planted on mountain hillside vineyards, the Veraton is aged in 60% new French oak and 40% new American oak for 17 months and bottled without filtration so it throws a bit of sediment. The wine shows great intensity, loads of blackcurrant and black cherry fruit, with licorice, lavender and touch of graphite and earth. It is full-bodied and powerful.
- 2012 Regis Bouvier Marsannay, Clos du Roy*$29

Pinot Noir

Clos du Roy "vineyard of the king" has 40-year-old vines. The wine is aged in barrel for 12-16 months with 30% new oak. It is a full and robust Pinot with a lot of muscle for the money. 13% alcohol by volume
- 2014 Zorzal Eggo Tinto de Tiza*$26

Malbec, Cabernet Franc, Cabernet Sauvignon

Aged in concrete eggs, the Eggo has notes of chalk from the calcareous soils of Gualtallary. It's tannins and rich acidity are poignant, leaving a trace of freshness and juiciness.
- 2003 L'Arco Rubeo*$45

40% Cabernet Franc, 40% Cabernet Sauvignon, 20% Valpolicella

Complex, powerful red of considerable intensity and focus. Cabernet grapes undergo passito process, revealing unknown depths of vivacity and charm. Stunning. Dark, potent, very long finish.

- 2010 Château Plaisance Cuvée Alix*$22

70% Merlot, 25% Cabernet Sauvignon, 5% Cabernet Franc

"A beautiful sleeper of the vintage, which offers terrific value. Fruity and Bordeaux-like, with notes of tobacco leaf, blueberries, black raspberries and incense, this explosively fruity, delicious, complex wine. "
