

November Madrona Wines Monthly

SIX REDS

- 2012 Kalem's Down Cabernet Sauvignon ($10)
The new incarnation of the popular Lorelle Cabernet. New label but still a great deal. Full dark fruit with green pepper and Jalapeno notes. Medium tannins and a smooth finish.
Was $15 now $10

- 2012 Sarrail Carcassonne ($12)
Pinot Noir
A Languedoc Pinot with good raspberry cherry fruit and a smooth finish.
13% alcohol by volume

- 2009 Pico Maccario Cantamerli ($13)
60% Barbera, 40% Cabernet Sauvignon
A big shouldered blend from Asti. Aromas of mint, dried cherries are followed by dark fruit and present pleasant tannins.
Was $18 now $13

- 2012 Domaine Roque Sestière A L'Orée des Pins Corbieres ($13)
60% Syrah, 40% Carignan
Corbieres
A broad shouldered Corbieres, with lots of dark fruit and smooth but deep tannins.
Organic

- 2012 Tessellae Carignan Vieilles Vignes ($14)
A big and rich old vine Carignan for Roussillon.

- 2012 Roeno Teroldego I Dossi ($13)
A Northern Italian varrital from a single vineyard in Veneto with lots of berry fruit, a medium body and a silky finish.

November Madrona Wines Monthly

SIX WHITES

- 2009 Montenidoli Vinbrusco ($14)
65% Trebbiano Gentile, 35% Malvasia Bianca
The free run must from the Trebbiano and Malvasia grapes in the Chianti vineyards. It's the white wine traditionally drunk by the farmers of San Gimignano. It ferments in steel and ages on the lees to acquire body and softness. It's full round fruit and big mouthfeel really set this white apart. 12.5% alcohol by volume
Was $20 Now $14

- 2010 Tenuta Rapitala Piano Maltese ($10)
Grillo and Cataratto
Fresh Mediterranean scents and a savory, elegant flavor with a hint of bitter almonds. Piano Maltese is born at the heart of Tenuta Rapitalà, on gentle hills at 1200 feet above seal level in Sicily.

- 2013 Tilia Torrontes ($10)
A floral white from Argentina with citrus and apricot flavor and clean acidity. 13% alcohol by volume
Sustainable

- 2012 Kuentz-Bas Alsace Blanc ($12)
60% Sylvaner, 20% Muscat, 20% Auxerrois
A dry but floral Alsatian blend that combines honeysuckle, peach and apricot flavors. 12.5% ABV
Bio-dynamic

- 2012 Corte Giacobbe Soave ($13)
Garganega
A full Soave at a good price. Rich aromas of white fruit, refreshing, vibrant, textured and with the characteristic final hint of almond. 12.5% alcohol by volume

- 2013 Turasan Emir ($15)
The Emir grape only grows in one place in the world – Cappadocia, Turkey. The nose has notes of citrus peel and white flowers along with pears and fennel pollen. On the palate it comes across as balanced, bright and lively with refreshing floral and Meyer lemon flavors and ending with a mineral note that is rounded out from the sur-lies aging.

November Madrona Wines Monthly

SIX MORE REDS

- ☐ 2010 Renwood Fiddletown Zinfandel ($15)
Intensely ripe cherry fruit nose with honey, and sweet notes of spice and a hint of bay leaf. On the palate, blackberry and vanilla bean, and a very complex layer of flavors with hints of Herbs de Provence.
Was $25 now $15

- ☐ 2012 Diren Öküzgözü (Oh-cooz-goe-zue) ($14)
85% Öküzgözü, 15% Cabernet Sauvignon
Diren Winery is located in the northern part of Turkey in Anatolia. Their Oküzgözü highlights this native grape. The wine is medium-bodied wines with ripe fruit and spice flavors and plenty of lively acidity. In 2012, a hot summer was followed by a cool, dry harvest allowing for long hang-times producing excellent structure, and aromatics.

- ☐ 2011 Ginestraia Chianti Reserva ($13)
Sangiovese
A full fruit forward modern styled Chianti with a lot going on for a little bit of money.

- ☐ 2010 Château Garrineau Brodeaux ($14)
60% Merlot, 40% Cabernet Sauvignon
From 25-year-old vines, this Bordeaux has aromas of cassis, blueberries and a full, dry chewy body.
12.5% alcohol by volume

- ☐ 2012 Alto Los Romeros Carmenere ($12)
Colchagua Valley
Black cherry and red currant fruit with a hint of spiciness.
13% alcohol by volume

- ☐ 2012 Notre Dame Lirac ($15)
Grenache, Syrah, Mourvedre, & Cinsault
This wine has a complex bouquet of savory red fruits, baking spices and leather, and the full-bodied palate displays darker fruits with elegant tannins and vanilla on the lengthy finish.