- 2012 La Crouze Pouilly Fuissé ($23)
Chardonnay
A nicely developed Chardonnay. Packed with apple and mineral notes
Organic

- 2012 Principe Pallavicini Amarasco Cesanes ($22)
100% Cesanese
Pallavicini is located in Lazio (the knee cap). The name Amarasco refers to the typical aromas of the Cesanese grape variety, the violetta flower and sour cherry, also called “amarasco” in Italian. This wine comes from some of the oldest Pallavicini vineyards with 60-year-old vines. The wine has broad aromas with notes of nutmeg, red rose and spicy nuances. The palate has great thrust but is balanced and mouth-filling with a long finish.

- 2012 Baron Edmond de Rothschild Flechas de los Andes, Gran Corte ($30)
60% Malbec, 30% Syrah, 10% Cabernet Franc
The Gran Corte comes from best plots in the vineyard and a selection of the finest barrels. The wine has intense nose of earthy black fruit aromas & licorice. This rich & powerful wine is full bodied with firm tannins with flavors of plums, anise and black fruits are supported by spice & well integrated savory French oak on the very long & lingering finish.

- 2009 Terrebrune Bandol ($48)
85% Mouvedre, 10% Grenache, 5% Cinsault
The 2009 has aromas of dried fruits, black tea, mineral, black pepper, rose, violets, thyme, smoky bacon all vie discreetly for attention. The palate is pure pleasure, with very fine tannins, gorgeous acidity and intense and persistent fruit. Aging potential 30 years.
