

SIX REDS

- ☐ 2014 Sarraïl Cabernet Franc ($11)
The best of the Sarraïl wines that we have tried. Soft and serious. It delivers its treasures with a complex nose of tobacco, dried herbs and cloves, it disseminates green olive aromas, coffee and bitter chocolate. There are fruit flavors on the palate with plum and blackberry and hints of cinnamon. A tannic palate, soft and attractive, offering good vitality elements and a long, lingering finish. 13% alcohol by volume
- ☐ 2014 Locus Modo ($15)
59% Merlot, 25% Malbec, 15% Syrah
A everyday drinker from our local winemakers. The Modo has good dark fruit and smooth tannins that is easy to drink but still with something to chew on. 13.5% alcohol by volume
- ☐ 2009 Château Barrabaque Cuvée Antoine ($13)
Cannon Fronsac
The Cuvée Antoine is from a plot of 35 year old vines & aged in second and third fill barriques. Blackcurrants and jammy dark fruit aromas lead to a robust palate full of more blackcurrant, cherries, a touch of vanilla spice and good supple tannin structure. Think Bar-B-Que!
- ☐ 2010 Roeno Enantio Terradeiforti DOC ($15)
The grape Enantio dates back in the area to at least the 1st century ad. The Roeno spends 15-months in oak barrels, 6-month in stainless steel tanks before bottling. The wine has a complex bouquet of red berries, spices with a soft tobacco and incense notes.
- ☐ 2014 Casa Vinironia Appassimento Edizione Oro ($12)
Merlot, Primitivo and Negroamaro
This wine is made using the appassimento method (use of dried grapes). A modern style with silky, soft tannins. The wine bursts with blackberry, espresso and dark caramel aromas contrasted by a spicy, white pepper note.
- ☐ 2014 La Cantine di Indie Polpo Rosso ($15)
Nerello Mascalese
A lighter Sicillian red, special bottling for a local importer. Ther red octopus is a tenatious wine with bright acidity, layered cherry flavor and lingering finish. 12% alcohol by volume. Organic

A full viognier with floral notes mixed with a peach and mineral foundation.

☐ 2014 Massone Gavi ($13)

Cortese

Made from 100% Cortese grapes, this Gavi is both soft and crisp. With a pleasant stony backbone, this wine features notes of green apple, pear and a lovely, enlivening finish of white flower and white pepper.

12% alcohol by volume

☐ 2014 Pine Ridge Chenin Blanc + Viognier ($13)

A great blend from sourced fruit. Fresh lemon, juicy honeydew melon, pomelo and sweet mango, along with soft orange blossom and carnation floral notes. A wine that can stand up to rich meals.

12.5% alcohol by volume

☐ 2014 Brandborg Pinot Gris ($15)

From Oregon's newest AVA on the main Umpqua River. The Pinot Gris has fresh fruit flavors; green mango, green apple and pineapple. The acidity keeps it fresh and crisp.

☐ 2014 Brunn Grüner Veltliner ($14)

A small family estate, Brunn hand-harvest their low-yield vines. A classic Gruner Veltliner with lots of apple and citrus. Crisp with a traditional peppery hint and a bit more body than most. 12.5% alcohol by volume

☐ 2014 Cantina Filodivino Verdicchio dei Castelli di Jesi DOC ($14)

From the Marche, Filodivino's Verdicchio comes from an organically farmed vineyard of 30-40 year old vines. The wine has aromas of acacia blossom, chamomile and peach. Delicate citrus and mineral notes tag along a generous mouthfeel that finishes with a subtle savory touch. 13% alcohol by volume

SIX MORE REDS

- ☐ 2012 M. Chapoutier La Ciboise ($11)
Grenache Noir, Syrah
Luberon
Intense, brilliant and limpid garnet red color with purple tints. Complex and delicate with spicy notes (nutmeg and pepper) and black fruit aromas. The attack is frank with a tight tannic structure. The wine is well-balanced on the palate with black fruit aromas (blueberry, blackberry and black currant). Winemaker's Notes
- ☐ 2010 Terredora Dipaolo Lacryma Christi ($14)
100% Piedirosso
Intense aromas of fruit: cherries, raspberries, currants, spicy, mineral and cloves. Elegant and soft on the palate offers pleasant notes of ripe red fruits, plum and hints of tobacco, coffee and pepper. 13% alcohol by volume. Was $22 now $14
- ☐ 2014 Le Fay d'Homme Côt ($14)
Malbec
A bit of an oddity, this Malbec from the Loire is a bit lighter than Cahor, but abounds with juicy and spicy black cherry and plums with hints of pepper and anise and a large core of minerality. Organic
12% alcohol by volume
- ☐ 2011 Vina Cerrada Rioja ($13)
95% Tempranillo, 5% Graciano
Crianza
A good introduction to Rioja, the Cerrada Crianza has attractive varietal aromas of red berries, fresh strawberry leaf and some hints of spice. It is rounded and soft in the mouth, with a medium bodied palate stacked with crunchy red berry and hedgerow fruit leading into an elegantly smooth, caressing finish.
- ☐ 2012 Vento di Mare Nerello Mascalese ($10)
While the better Nerello Mascalese grows up in the cooler slopes of Mt Etna, we're guessing that this one comes from the hotter flatland of the island. Still you can't beat the price and it has nice fruit of plum and blackberry and a spicy finish. 13% alcohol by volume
- ☐ 2012 Lauribert Visan Les Truffieres Rouge ($12)
80% Syrah, 20% Grenache
Domaine des Lauribert, in the Côte du Rhone Village of Visan, has been in the Sourdon family for the last five generations. The wine has a pleasing bouquet of mixed berries and white pepper. Its flavors are balanced between fruit, tannins and fresh acidity. Was $16 now $12
