

SATURDAY NIGHT SELECTIONS

- 2013 Juan Gil 100 year Anniversary Special ($20)
50% Monastral, 25% Cabernet Sauvignon, 25% Syrah
This elegantly structured wine opens with aromas of black plum and currant, mocha, leather, tobacco and a hint of anise. Dense, layered and velvety tannins on the palate.

- 2012 Maison Bleue Metis ($20)
70% Syrah, 20% Grenache, 5% Mourvedre
An well-balanced red blend from Prosser. The wine has an intriguing bouquet of smoked meats, dark cherry, clove, pomegranate followed by dry savory fruit flavors. Was $30 now $20

- 2013 Meyer-Näkel Blauschiefer Spätburgunder ($56)
Pinot Noir
This incredible (and incredibly rare wine) from extremely steep blue slate slopes in the Ahr has the texture and weight of a premier cru Volnay. It is truly world class Pinot that will get better and better with age.
