A little Super Tuscan blend with a lot of dark juicy fruit. Very hard not to like. Was $20 now $12

- 2015 Charles Brotte Grand Vallon ($10)
Syrah
This would be a Côte du Rhone except for the fact there is no Grenache in it. The gran Vallon in full of raspberry and red currants as well as hints of the lavender and other herbs and a bit of rustic muscle.

- 2014 Domaine de Brin Vendemia Rouge ($15)
80% Duras, 20% Merlot
The family owned Domaine de Brin estate is situated on a calcareous-clay plateau surrounded by an oak wood and uses organic growing and natural vinification methods. Their Rouge has aromas of black fruits, and mild spices. The flavors are fruity and generous with silky tannins. Organic

6 More Reds

- 2015 Zorzal Terroir Unico, Cabernet Franc ($14)
Zorzal tends to pick it's grapes a little earlier(greener) than most in Mendoza to retain freshness and acidity in their wines instead of the overblown ripeness that is too often seen. with notes of mushroom, cola nut, and red flowers. The mouthfeel is rich and smooth with light tannin, medium acidity, and a little tension. The chalky soil comes through in the finish.

- 2013 Tenuta Sant Antonio Monti Garbi Ripasso ($15)
70% Corvina, 20% Rondinella, 5% Croatina, 5% Oseleta
Aromas of red fruit and cherries. The flavors are slightly sweetish, soft yet powerful, fresh, and full-flavored with a trace of tannin and a spicy aftertaste.

- 2012 Oasis del Cuyo ($9)
Cabernet Sauvignon
A smooth everyday Argentine Cabernet with aromas of blackberry and pepper. Medium bodied with soft tannins and a smooth mouth-feel. Was $13 now $9

- 2015 Ferraris Ruche ($16)
An obscure grape from one of the smallest appellations in Italy this Ruche has aromas of Sandlewood and dark cherries. The palate is smooth and supple with a touch of earth, spice and a dry finish.

- 2014 Reserve de Generac Costieres de Nimes ($11)
80% Syrah, 20% Grenache
A juicy Syrah from the south of France, full of red fruits and black currants and a full generous mouth.
13% alcohol by volume

- 2014 Domaine Graveirette, Cotes du Rhone ($16)
100% Grenache
From a family estate on the outskirts of the Châteauneuf-du-Pape, this Cotes du Rhone is full and chewy, with firm tannins. It has lots of earth, meat, garrigue, pepper, and spice but also clean and pure with bright raspberry and black cherry fruit. Organic

3 Rosés

- Organic 2015 Sadel Cotes de Provence Rosé ($13)
40% Mourvedre, 30% Cinsault, 20% Grenache, 10% Syrah
A nice Provence Rosé at a great price. Aromas of Strawberry and Honeysuckle, crisp and dry and lighter herbal notes. 12% alcohol by volume

- 2015 Ontañón Clarete ($10)
75% Viura, 25% Trempanillo
Clarete is a traditional rosé style unique to Rioja, produced from a blend of white and red grapes which are pressed together before fermentation. The aroma has fresh red berry aromas with delicate stone fruits. The palate is fresh, crisp and very appealing on a warm summers day, with fruity red berry fruits, floral and citrus notes. 13% alcohol by volume

- 2014 Rimauresq Cru Classe Rosé ($15)
34% Grenache Noir, 33% Cinsault, 33% Mourvedre
Rimauresq's other cru (we loved their R) has equally ballanced parts of the 3 classic rosé varritals. The wine has lifted characters of red currents and wild red berries. The palate is savoury with mineral hints but at the same time it is pretty and fruity. 13% alcohol by volume Was $20 now $15
