ROSÉS

- 2016 Haut Bourg Grolleau Rosé $11
Only a handful of producers in the Loire (and therefore the world perhaps) grow and make wine from the Grolleau grape. But it makes a lovely very crisp rosé with aromas of gooseberries, little red fruits and a well-balanced freshness. But Summer is over and they have dropped the price. Was $15 now $11
12% alcohol by volume

- 2016 Onyx Mediterranee Rosé $13
A very cryptic Southern French Rosé that drinks great for the money. 12.5% alcohol by volume

- 2016 Les Pins Bourgueil Rosé $13
Cabernet Franc
This is a fresh, snappy berry-driven rosé with delicate floral notes. It's bright and crisp, delicious with or without food. Domaine les Pins has been family run for five generations. They are a small artisanal producer that oversees every stage of the production from start to finish. 13% alcohol by volume

BUBBLES

- Coté Mas Cremant de Limoux Brut $17
60% Chardonnay, 30% Chenin, 10% Pinot Noir, 10% Mauzac
An intense and refined nose of honey, acacia and crystallized lemon lead way to a harmonious palate of citrus fruits. A great balance of sugar and acidity with a long finish. 12.5% alcohol by volume

- Luis Pato Baga Spumante Rosé $15
Truly unique, this delicious, subtle pink sparkler is made from the бага grape. Fresh, fruity nose with a subtle herby edge. The palate is quite zippy but there's some breadth here. 12% alcohol by volume
