

- ☐ 2011 La Motte Syrah

95% Syrah, 5% Grenache

From the Franschhoek Valley in South Africa's Cape winelands, The La Motte Syrah tastes of dark berries and cloves. The finish is long and features clear oak notes. 13.5% alcohol by volume. Was $25 now $15

$15
- ☐ 2016 Mauro Maschio Merlot

The Maschi is a distinct expression on Merlot from the Northeast of Italy ~ and it is at a great price. 12% alcohol by volume

$11
- ☐ 2015 Denois Les Garrigues

Syrah, Grenache, Merlot, Malbec, Cabernet Sauvignon.

This is the Bordeaux-meets-Rhône blend you never knew you wanted. Lots of soft red fruit and a pleasant kick of spice. Organic. 13% alcohol by volume

$12
- ☐ 2012 Franc Grâce-Dieu St. Emillion Grande Cru

70% Merlot, 30% Cabernet Franc

A rich and complex Bordeaux with a lot of leathery and mineral richness.

$30
- ☐ 2014 Ca Salgari Valpolicella Classico Superiore D.O.C. Ripasso Vajoi

Corvina Veronese, Corvinone, Rondinella and Croatina

This Ripasso has a rich range of fragrances with persistent notes of ripe red fruits, tobacco, spices, and light vanilla. It is warm, soft and embracing, with elegant tannins, and a well-balanced structure.

$24
- ☐ 2008 Il Cellesse Pictus Toscana Rosso

60% Sangiovese, 20% Merlot, 20% Cabernet Sauvignon

A super Tuscan with some age on it. Intense aromas of ripe red fruit like cherries, plums and blueberries with hints of underwood, wet earth, wood, spices and cloves.

$24

March M<sup>3</sup> Selections Madrona Wines Monthly