SIX WHITES

- ☐ 2016 Marcel Giraudon Bourgogne Aligoté $15
The Giraudon family has been farming and making wine in Chitry for centuries. Their vineyards are on hillsides of Kimmeridgian chalky marl which is particularly well suited for the Aligoté grape. Marcel Giraudon has six of his 18.5 hectares planted to Aligoté. The wine goes through a malo-lactic fermentation which adds a lovely middle palate to its vibrant fruity and mineral qualities. The wine shows some serious complexity with lime and minerals, a racy edge and a long finish with a bit of toasty cream.
12.5% alcohol by volume
- ☐ 2016 Locus Modo White $13
