

SIX REDS

- 2010 Castello di Monsanto, Monrosso $14
80% Sangiovese, 15% Canaiolo, 5% Merlot
This Chianti is a great value everyday red. It opens with a fragrant cherry bouquet with a hint of apple. On the palate, this wine is medium bodied, balanced, juicy, and fruit forward. The flavor profile is a mild oak infused black cherry, with hints of plum, black pepper and a touch of black currant. The finish is dry and its moderate tannins are nicely prolonged. 13.5% alcohol by volume. Was $17 Now $14

- 2012 Chapillon, Siendra $15
80% Grenache, 7% Syrah, 7% Cabernet Sauvignon, 6% Merlot
Deep black cherry red, nose of black cherry fruit and autumnal berries, evidence of oak well-blended in, quite lifted and floral, the grip of Cabernet Sauvignon and Syrah adds spice to the Grenache fruit which finishes with fine natural acidity.

- 2016 Moulin De Gassac Guilhem Rouge $12
40% Syrah, 30% Grenache, 30% Carignan
The young wine from Gassac, this distinctive Syrah-blend has a fragrant, earthy nose of black fruit and herbs, and a fresh, moderately-tannic palate of baked blackberry pie, nutmeg and cedar. 13% alcohol by volume

- 2016 Campos de Luz Old Vine Garnacha $9
Deep red in color with a deeper weight of color than for a regular Garnacha. Scents of fresh blackberries and cherries, together with a hint of black pepper. Full and rich in the mouth, with the fruit immediately to the fore, a broad pallet and a long juicy finish which holds its presence without astringent tannins.

- 2015 Shooting Star Mendocino Zinfandel $10
This ripe and boozy Cali Zin goes on special this month. Was $15 now $10

- 2016 La Favola Nero $13
Nero d'Avola
A dark smokey organic Nero from Sicily. Dark berry fruit with a dark bitter chocolate finish.
Organic. 13% alcohol by volume
