

M³ RED SELECTIONS

- ☐ 2011 Saint Esteve d' Uchaux Massif d' Uchaux Vieilles Vignes $20
50% Grenache, 50% Syrah
This aim for the bleachers wine from this estate hits it over the fences. The 2011 tastes as good as many a Châteauneuf du Pape. Maybe better. Was $35 now $20
- ☐ 2012 Carpineto Vino Nobile $30
90% Sangiovese, 10% Canaiolo
Subtle plum, toast, underbrush and violet aromas slowly emerge in this Riserva. The firm palate offers black currant, sour cherry, dried sage and espresso, while taut, close-grained tannins leave an assertive finish.
13.5% alcohol by volume
- ☐ 2011 Cambon La Pelouse Haut Medoc $22
50% Merlot, 47% Cabernet Sauvignon, 3% Petit Verdot
Coming from vines close to Margaux (but not quite) the Cambon reveals a plum-ruby colour as well as rich flower scents mixed with red and black currant, spices, and hints of wood. This offering is fleshy, medium-bodied, and with rich fruit flavors. Was $33 now $22
- ☐ 2010 Vignalta Rosso Reserva $17
60% Merlot, 40% Cab Sauvignon
Good Italian Bordeaux , the nose is complex and deep, with mineral and spicy notes, which lead to fruity varietal notes of blackberry and marasca jam, then continue with hints of grass and undergrowth. On the palate it is elegant, balanced, with a lively yet young tannic texture. Long persistence. Was $23 now $17
- ☐ 2014 Borgo del Cedro Lazio Rosso $10
Cesanese, Sangiovese, and Montepulciano
This red blend from the center of Italy has red fruit and violet notes. The body is supple, but structured with elegant tannins 13.5% alcohol by volume
- ☐ 2012 Château Saint-Hilaire Medoc $15
50% Cabernet Sauvignon, 45% Merlot, 5% Cabernet Franc
This Cru Bourgeois has a classic Bordeaux style, with fragrant berry fruit and sweet spice and a little earthy barnyard to make it interesting. 13% alcohol by volume. Was $23 now $15
