

SIX REDS

- ☐ 2015 Borgo Scopeto Chianti Classico $12
Sangiovese
Enticing aromas of fragrant purple flowers, ripe woodland berries and a whiff of pressed powder waft out of the glass. Bright and juicy, the savory palate shows crushed raspberry, fleshy Morello cherry, ground clove and a hint of coffee alongside polished, fine-grained tannins. 13.5% alcohol by volume. Was $17 now $12
- ☐ 2016 La Croix Belle Caringole, Côtes de Thongue $10
65% Syrah, 20% Merlot, 15% Carignan
This family owned and operated Domaine that traces its roots back more than two centuries. Francoise and Jacques Boyer assumed control of the property in the late 70s. A lot of replanting was done, yields were lowered and modern techniques and facilities were adopted. It is a vibrant red with fresh berry notes and a delicious lively palate. 13% alcohol by volume
- ☐ 2016 Palacio de Canedo Bierzo Maceracion $12
Mencia
A small-production hand-made organic wine from Bierzo. Medium-bodied and fresh with red fruit aromas and subtle cinnamon notes. Lively on the mouth and lingering finish. Organic. Was $20 now $12
- ☐ 2014 Château La Brande Côtes de Castillon $12
70% Merlot, 22% Cabernet Franc, 8% Cabernet Sauvignon
From a small family winery, the La Brande is intensely full of mineral notes blending with ripe fruit and solid, harmonious tannins. Sustainable. Was $18 now $12
- ☐ 2012 Dante Rivetti Mara $13
Barbera d'Alba
Named after the youngest Rivetti daughter, this Barbera presents the variety's youthful spontaneous, easy - drinking properties in a very special way. Hints of red currants and railway cherries. Smooth, but very noticeable tannins. Very good finish. 13% alcohol by volume. Was $19 now $13
- ☐ 2016 Argiano Non Confunditur $15
Cabernet Sauvignon, Sangiovese, Merlot, and Syrah
The innate gentles of Merlot creating a bridge between the evident earthiness of Sangiovese, the aromatic blackcurrant flavours of Cabernet and the warm red berries of Syrah. NC is a wine with a decisive, full-bodied character, smooth tannins and a persistent finish. Was $18 now $15

- 2016 Santa Clerissa Pinot Grigio Ramato $13
The vineyards are located in a hilly area in Roncà, in the Veneto region. The grapes go through a maceration with the skin contact for about 12 to 24 hours, enriching the wine in a very distinctive way, giving it its coppery color. Citrus notes, green apples, pear and flowers. On the palate it is elegant, round, full-bodied structured and balanced acidity. Featuring a beautiful freshness with a long and persistent finish.
13% alcohol by volume

TWO BUBBLES

- 2016 Rosell Mir El Serralet Rosé Brut Nature $16
Trepát, Pinot Noir
A crisp and unusual, not to mention delicious rosé Cava. 11.5% alcohol by volume

- German Gilabert Cava Brut Nature Reserva $15
50% Macabeo, 30% Xarello, 20% Parellada
This Brut Nature is from an organic vineyard in the Alt Penedès, one of the highest altitude sites in Catalonia for Cava. The vines were planted 35 years ago on sandy and chalky soils. There's finesse as well—fine bubbles, delicate aromas of green and red apples and mineral notes. The wine's acidity is crystalline and sharp, the flavors deep and focused on fresh lime. Organic. 11.5% alcohol by volume
