

M³ REDS

- 2016 Les Vieux Joseph Miriadzo $20
Cornalin, Vien de Nus and Pinot Noir
A unique vineyard blend from the very north of Italy. Fresh and crisp with layered complexity. Organic

- 2008 Chateau D'Agassac Haut Medoc $30
50% Merlot, 47% Cabernet Sauvignon, 3% Cabernet Franc
Aged and ready to go, this left bank Bordeaux is drinking well right now with a good balance of fruit and mineral notes. 13% alcohol by volume

- 2015 Montvac Gigondas $30
70% Grenache, 25% Syrah, 5% Mourvèdre
Domaine de Montvac has been passed from mother to daughter for the past three generations. Their Gigondas had an elegant tannic structure with a perfume of wild garrigue and spice, mixed with the sunshine aromas of Grenache.

- 2013 Rocche Costamagna Dolcetto d'Alba $10
This is a classic Dolcetto d'Alba for everyday drinking, with pleasing aromas reminiscent of marasca cherries. Soft on the palate, with delicate and persistent flavours, marked by a light almond finish. 13% alcohol by volume. Was $15 now $10

- 2013 My Essential California Cabernet $15
Tastes like California Cab. Plum flesh, grapeseed and black-peppercorn aromas introduce this leaner, less-extracted style of wine. The palate shows deep cherry and plum juice with lots of peppery spice and decent tannic structure. Was $20 Now $15

- 2015 Esporao Monte Velho $10
40% Argonez, 35% Trincadeira, 20% Torigan Nacional, 5% Syrah
Faithful to its roots, Monte Velho is the Alentejo in a glass. Aromas of spicy red and dark berry fruits, earthy notes. The palate is fresh and elegant with good fruit depth, nicely structured.

M³ Selections February Madrona Wines Monthly

M³ WHITES

- ☐ 2017 Delas Viognier $12
From Languedoc fruit this Viognier offers aromas of apricots, peaches, exotic fruits and preserved citrus fruit. The palate is both smooth and fresh, finishing with a hint of dried fruits. 13% alcohol by volume
- ☐ 2017 Cincinnato Castore $13
Bellone
From Lazio the Castore is 100% Bellone. The nose is full of lemon, lemon drop, fennel and a little hint of camp fire. It is mid weight with lots of lemony acidity and a little peachy note in the finish. Touch of spice...fleshy, bright and with a rather stubborn finish. No Baloney. 13% alcohol by volume
- ☐ 2013 Sant 'Elena Klodic $15
Pinot Grigio
This Pinot Grigio offers complex varietal fruit laced with perfumed aromatics. This tasty, soft-textured Pinot Grigio possesses excellent balance and poise. 13% alcohol by volume
- ☐ 2017 Cherrier & Fils Sancerre $23
Sauvignon Blanc
The estate has limestone and calcareous clay soils that wonderfully influence the character of the grapes grown there. The Sancerre is consistently delicious, with citrus, chalky mineral and light floral notes. Its dry finish complements seafood and cheese beautifully.
- ☐ 2016 Colutta Pinot Grigio $20
Colli Orientali vineyards are influenced by the breeze from the Adriatic. This Pinot Grigio has effusive aromas of apple blossoms and quince with underpinnings of bitter almonds. It is intense with rich and refreshing flavors.
- ☐ 2015 Ktima Brintziki Tinaktorogos $19
Aasproudes
A dry crisp Greek wine with impressive acidity and delicate aromas of lemon flowers and tropical fruit with a long lasting aftertaste. 12.5% alcohol by volume

M³ Selections February Madrona Wines Monthly