

SATURDAY NIGHT REDS

- 2013 Corsini Barolo $30
Nebbiolo
Corsini is known for their single-vineyard Barolos, but this blended example has all the right notes of rose, tea, tar and rich cherry fruit. 13.5% alcohol by volume

- 2016 Penalolen Cabernet Sauvignon $21
The Penalolen Shows a rich perfume of blackberry and cassis, this Domus Aurea holds up to the lofty reputation of its forebearers. It's an elegant wine, silky in texture, with deep, rich flavors on a pure, superbly balanced palate.

- 2014 Nicolas Perrin Croze Hermitage $20
Syrah
Meaty notes of charcuterie and leather juxtapose sun-kissed blackberry and cherry in this easy-drinking Syrah. While ripe and richly extracted, it has fresh acidity and a kick of peppery spice to lend balance. Fine-grained tannins lengthen the finish. Drink now through 2024. 13% alcohol by volume. Was $26 now $20

- 2014 Château de Marsannay Givery Chambertin $35
Pinot Noir
Deep brilliant red cherry color. On the nose, expressive, with fresh fruit and spicy aromas. Slight hint of toasted notes. Full, complex and well-balanced wine with nice tannins and excellent length. 13% alcohol by volume. Was $75 now $35

- 2005 Sant'Elena Venezia Giulia $30
Cabernet Sauvignon
A savory style Cabernet with a bit of age on it. Red currant and berry fruit with notes of fresh earth and dried tobacco spice with some tannins still on the finish. Drinking great. 1.5 liter

- 2005 Château Citran Haut Medoc $36
50% Cabernet Sauvignon, 50% Merlot
A chance to drink a developed Bordeaux without aging it yourself. This stunning Left Bank Bordeaux blends 50% Merlot with 50% Cabernet Sauvignon from a text-book perfect vintage. The classic ageing in part new French oak adds a toasty spiciness to the wines, while the fruit flavors have moved towards the more mature flavors of dark berry fruit, earthy notes and savoury bite. Was $48 now $36

SATURDAY NIGHT WHITES

- 2015 Cave De Tain Crozes-Hermitage Blanc $20
Marsanne.
Rich nose dominated by citrus fruits and green lemon. The second nose, more complex, reveals exotic fruits (pineapple, mango), anise and bitter almond aromas. A well-balanced and fresh wine with a lemony finish - just like biting into a fresh, ripe grape.

- 2015 Ixsir Grande Reserve White $20
60% Viognier, 25% Sauvignon, 15% Cahrdonnay
A flagship white from the Bekka Valley in Lebanon ~ enticing white flowers, peach and citrus fruits on the nose. Equilibrium between mellowness and liveliness on the palate which leads into a long finish with classy oak notes.

- 2016 Caravaglio Malvasia $20
From the Aeolian island of Salina near Sicily in southern Italy. Grown on volcanic soils, this is made of 100% Malvasia Bianco and is vinified completely dry. Exotic and intensely perfumed, this wine opens with vibrant lychee, pineapple and honeysuckle notes on the nose and leads to a salty, lean, mineral palate that speaks of its island origins. 12.5% alcohol by volume
