

SIX M³-REDS

- 2015 Terres Falmet Cinsault $10
From a plot of 50+ year-old Cinsault vines planted on beautiful hillside vineyards in Saint-Chinian. It is a silky, medium-bodied red, with hints of raspberry and blueberry flavors, black pepper and garrigue spices, with very soft tannins. 13% alcohol by volume. Was $14 now $10

- 2015 Château Andriet Bordeaux $12
85% Merlot, 15% Cabernet Sauvignon
An entry-level Bordeaux that overdelivers for the money. Dark fruit, dry tannins.

- 2017 Notre Dame des Pallieres Sablet $13
60% Grenache, 40% Syrah
From 40year-old vines, this Sablet has Nose of fresh fruit, intense, on morello cherry, blackberry, red fruit coulis. The palate is fleshy, round, crisp, full of fruit, with matter, without hardness and silky tannins.

- 2016 Steele Cabernet Sauvignon Red Hills $25
Well known Napa Valley grape grower Andy Beckstoffer bought up a piece of the Red Hills AVA, planting it in Cabernet Sauvignon and other Bordeaux varietals with which he is very familiar. Steele has been using the fruit since 2002. This wine has a rich, fruit-forward elegance. A spicy fruit and berry core backed up by soft tannins makes it a nice glass of wine for casual sipping among friends.

- 2013 Monte Zovo Amarone $40
Corvina, Corvinone, Rondinella
The 2013 Amarone della Valpolicella hits all the right buttons in terms of fruity softness and richness. This is a densely extracted red wine that offers a full court of aromas with plump cherry, dried blackberry, bitter chocolate and exotic spice front and center. The mouthfeel is immensely rich and succulent with superbly round and soft fruit flavors.

- 2014 Acacia Winery Lake Vineyard $20
Pinot Noir
A silky smooth Carneros Pinot. "Notably ripe through aromas of various dark berries, clove, sandalwood and anise remain sufficiently fresh to be appealing. The sense of freshness and vibrancy can also be found on the delicious, supple and caressing medium weight flavors." Was $45 now $20

M³-Selections March Madrona Wines Monthly

SIX M³ WHITES

- 2014 Nicosia Vulka Etna Bianco $13
60% Carricante, 40% Catarratto
Delicate aromas of ripe apples, pears, orange blossom, wild herbs with hints of mineral on the nose. The palate is very balanced and fresh, with good acidity and a long, mineral finish. 12.5% alcohol by volume

- 2017 Ca' Gialla Roero Arneis $11
Hints of white and citrus fruits, notes of savoury and freshness. Organic. 13% alcohol by volume

- 2014 Folk Machine Chenin Blanc $14
A very Euro-styled Chenin from California. Low-alcohol, dry Chenin from Mendocino, vinified in concrete eggs. No oak whatsoever, and the emphasis here is on crisp fruit and minerals. 11.5% alcohol by volume

- 2016 DeLille Cellars Chaleur Blanc $35
68% Sauvignon Blanc, 32% Semillon
One of Washington's premier white Bordeaux Blenders. Aromas of grapefruit, apples and pears, complimented by earthy notes of golden hay and wet stones. Offering hints of tropical fruit, apricots and candied lemon, the palate is enhanced with subtle barrel notes of light vanilla, eucalyptus and caramel, with a savory streusel character.

- 2013 Marc Deschamps Pouilly Fumé Les Porcheronnes $20
Sauvignon Blanc
Les Porcheronnes is made from several vineyards and is consistently one of our favorite bottlings from Deschamps. Great intensity and zest with a fresh evergreen, almost piney, quality to the aromas and flavors of minerals, herbs and juicy citrus. 13% alcohol by volume. Was $28 now $20

- 2016 Quinta Apolonia Belondrade $18
100% Verdejo
A full Verdejo from Castilla Y Leon. 30% comes from the cellar's d signature wine Belondrade y Lurton which is fermented and aged in French oak barrels for three months -the other 70% from the property's youngest vines which are fermented slowly in stainless. 13% alcohol by volume

M³Selections March Madrona Wines Monthly