

Sears Chardonney Selections

- 2013 Château St. Jean Reserve Chardonnay $19
A big buttery Cali Chardonnay takes a big price drop for no apparent reason. "complex aromas of both sweet and savory notes including lemon crème pie, nectarine and toasted almond and spiced tea. The nose rings true on the palate with layered flavors of cantaloupe melon and mango, lemon curd and baking spice."
Was $49 now $19

- 2015 Fogot Les Champs l'Huilier Bourgogne Blanc $22
Chardonnay
The nose shows hints of white flesh fruits, including peach and pear. A refreshing and smooth Chardonnay, balanced acidity and full mouthfeel.
12.5% alcohol by volume

- 2015 Monarcha Chardonnay $15
Fresh crisp aromas of Granny Smith apples and toasted applewood intermingle in the nose. Sourced from the beautiful Frenchman Hills Vineyards, this refreshing Chardonnay was barrel fermented to maintain its rich acid composition then aged in American oak for 3 months which gives this wine full texture allowing the complex flavors to develop with bold elegance.

- 2012 Navarro Chardonnay $15
This Medicino Chard is still drinking great with crisp notes of pear and apple along with controlled oak notes.
Was $20 now $15
