

SIX REDS

- 2012 Izadi Rioja Reserva $13
73% Tempranillo, 15% Graciano and 12% Granacha
Small but not small, Izadi produces its wine out of over 100 different plots of old vine vineyards averaging a hectare each. The Reserva was sourced from 60+-year-old vines and aged 14 months in American oak. A generous plum, chocolate and earthy nose with subtle oak. Dry tannins are well integrated. An impressive modern styled wine. Was $18 now $13

- 2013 Finn Hill Les Rouge $15
A blend of Bordeaux varietals out of this Woodenville winery. Rich fruit and balanced tannins with a bit of age to smooth it out. Was $30 now $15

- 2012 Beauregard Ducasse Graves $15
55% Merlot, 40% Cabernet Sauvignon, 5% Cabernet Franc
A good deal on a classic Bordeaux with cassis, black cherry, licorice and a dry mineral finish.

- 2016 Cantine Valpane Rosso Pietro $12
Barbera di Monferrato
A deep, earthy fruit nose and a palate loaded with bright, spicy Barbera fruit and smooth tannins followed by a deliciously perfumed finish. Was $15 now $12

- 2015 Di Meo Isso $15
Aglinaico
Dark-berry, pressed violet and tilled earth aromas come together on this. The easygoing enjoyable palate offers ripe blackberry and a hint of clove alongside mellow tannins. 12.5% alcohol by volume

- 2017 Famille Perrin Nature Organic Red $13
Grenache, Syrah
Certified organic, Perrin Nature is not only an organic Côtes-du-Rhône but also good wine. Using their experience in organic farming at Beaucastel (one of the first big estates to turn to organic farming 40 years ago), this wine is a beautiful expression of fruit with delicate and soft tannins. Rich in the mouth, it offers a nice complexity with aromas of spices, garrigue, blackcurrant and white pepper.
