

SIX REDS

- 2012 Di Stefano Domenica $15
80% Merlot, 10% Cabernet Sauvignon, 10% Cabernet Franc
The large amount of Merlot makes this wine soft but very full. This wine shows off black cherry, currant and sage notes, with wonderful texture and deep color. It is full in the mouth with a nice marriage of oak, balanced with tannin and good acidity. Was $34 now $15

- 2018 Clos des Lumineres Petit Verdot Les Cypres $11
Dark fruit and floral (violets, lilac) aromas. Flavors of black cherry, plum, and sage engulf the palate. Full-bodied with slight spice on the dry finish.

- 2015 Altano Douro $11
Touriga Franca, Tinta Roriz, Tinta Barroca
A ripe and smooth wine that has generous black fruits and a light touch of tannins. Coming from a good vintage, the wine is rich, packed with fruit and ready to drink.

- 2017 Berthier Coteaux du Gennois $15
Pinot Noir
A red fruity mélange of cherries, strawberries, damp herbs, a fine base of chalky soil tones, wood smoke and a touch of pepper on the nose. On the palate, the wine is medium-full, bright and gently rustic, with a good core, tangy acids, fine balance and grip and impressive intensity of flavor on the long and focused finish.

- 2016 Petroni Cosre Rouge $15
50% Niellucciu, 35% Syrah, 15% Grenache
From granite soils along the Mediterranean and was raised all in demi-muids. This medium to full-bodied beauty certainly makes an impression. It has sensational minerality as well as notes of black cherries, blackberries, spice, and flowers. Deep, layered, incredibly elegant, and seamless, with the tension and vibrancy common from granite soils.

- 2016 Triennes Saint August $15
Syrah, Cabernet Sauvignon and Merlot
This Provence red blend offers alluring aromas of ripe black cherries, nutmeg and clove. It is full and concentrated and is a wine that can be enjoyed upon release and over the following ten to fifteen years. Organic Was $19 now $15
