

SEARS SELECTIONS

- 2018 Freehand Cellars Oaked Chardonnay $17
Intriguing layers of poached pears, white peaches and baked apples that leads into the palate with complex layers of wet stone, marzipan and roasted cashews. The mouthfeel is pure and balanced and displays vibrant acidity while maintaining richness with an elegant finish that showcases sweet exotic spices and a lush, lingering finish. 13.5% alcohol by volume

- 2018 Pozzan Annabella Chardonnay $13
Napa Valley
Great Value CA Chard. Aromas of Asian pear, orange blossom, candied lemon peel, and brown sugar. In the mouth, the wine showcases a well-balanced acidity in counterpoint to a plump, round mouthfeel. Generous flavors of juicy pear, white nectarine, and Meyerlemon blend together with a note of toasted almonds lasting throughout the finish.

- 2018 Domain des Grand Rocs Juliéнас $15
Gamay
Cru Village Beaujolais at a very pleasant price. Medium-bodied cherry and berry fruit layered over a mineral backbone.

- 2017 Domaine Pélaquié Rive Droite Lirac $14
70% Grenache, 30% Mourvèdre
The medium to full-bodied Domaine Pélaquié 2017 Lirac starts with scents of black olive, but then those blend easily into red fruit flavors on the palate. Most impressive is the rich, velvety texture, which lingers elegantly through the long finish. Was $16, now $14
