

SATURDAY NIGHT REDS

- 2012 Domaine Rolet Arbois Rouge Tradition $21
40% Poulsard, 30% Trousseau, 30% Pinot Noir
A traditional light red from Arbois which brings the complexity from the soils of the hills of Montigny and Arbois made of red marls and rich gravels. 13% alcohol by volume

- 2017 Clos du Caillou Cuvée Unique $28
82% Grenache, 18% Syrah
Côtes du Rhône
Old Vine Cotes-du-Rhone comes from a parcel walled by renowned Châteauneuf-du-Pape vineyards. It was intentionally left out of the appellation by the owner, following a bureaucratic spat back in 1936. The wine offers supple yet compact fruit that spans black cherry, wild lavender, hints of wild game, and a touch of spices on the palate. It's truly one of the best Cotes-du-Rhone's made. Unfiltered

- 2010 Pietro Cassina Ciuete Coste Della Sesia $32
Nebbiolo
A great example of the harmony, roundness, structure, and elegance that is typical of the Nebbiolo wines of Lessona, in Northern Piedmont. Accents on the nose of roses, violets, red fruits and spices. Dry on the palate with structuring tannins and notes of cherries, forest fruits and crushed spices. Classic well aged Nebbiolo. 13% alcohol by volume. Was $50 now $32

- 2017 Alpha Estate Single Vineyard Xinomavro $24
From a high elevation vineyard, the wine has complex, typical bouquet of small berries red fruits, leather and spices (vanilla, pepper, clove), with hints of ripe blackberry. Full mouth, rounded tannins, balanced acidity and well integrated wood tones. Long aftertaste with intense quince aroma.

- 2015 Château Moncets Lalande de Pomerol $21
82% Merlot, 18% Cabernet Franc
A good Bordeaux from a good vintage. This wine, hugely rich and packed with tannins, has equally powerful black fruits. rich texture and blackberry and licorice flavors.

- 1997 Château Haut-Bergey Pessac Leognan $40
Equal parts Cabernet & Merlot
Ready-to-drink Bordeaux. This starts with soft, dusty, earthy tones that continue to open up as the wine gets more air. The color is quite deep and reveals a middle of lively and sweet rancier cherry fruit and a finish showing pronounced minerality.
