

SIX REDS

- ❑ 2017 La Bioca Riccinnebbia Langhe Nebbiolo $15
Riccinnebbia translates directly as ‘curly fog’ in English. This references the autumnal fog that often curls over the Langhe region during the annual grape harvest. 100% Nebbiolo, hand harvested and aged in a variety of oak barrels for periods of 10-16 months depending on the vessel. It has a floral nose and delicate red fruits on the palate. The finish is dry but there’s a hint of fruit sweetness (not sugar) that provides lift and makes the wine enjoyable. Was $22 now $15

- ❑ 2019 Domaine Couron Marselan $11
Marselan is a cross of Cab Sauv and Grenache and this one from the Ardeche is savory and layered with black plum, dark wild berries and sweet earth. It matches up with a wide range of food for everyday drinking.

- ❑ 2020 Santa Giulietta Vin de Corse Rouge $15
40% Niellucciu, 35% Grenache, 25% Syrah
This Corsican red shows notes of red fruits and spices on the nose. Round and smooth palate, dominated by flavors of ripe fruits. Soft and elegant finish.

- ❑ 2020 Damien Lorieux Bourgueil Fruit de Vie $15
Cabernet Franc
Compelling aromas and flavors of cherry, strawberry and violet. The wine stains the palate with chewy black cherry and tayberry fruit followed by hints of tobacco, white pepper, and leafy underbrush.

- ❑ 2020 Esporao Monte Velho $12
40% Argonez, 35% Trincadeira, 20% Torigan Nacional, 5% Syrah
This Portuguese stalwart from Alentej is an accessible and moreish anytime drinking red. Aromas of black fruit and wild berries, nicely enveloped in subtle notes of fresh spices. Intense and rich, with a solid structure and long finish. Vegan

- ❑ 2017 Cantine de Falco Salice Salentino $16
100% Negroamaro
A pretty Puglian. Dense black-plum and blackberry aromas are woven with orange peel and clove on the nose. It's full, rounded and plush on the palate, with rich berry flavors dipped in cocoa. Velvety tannins and bright acidity do well to match all that fruit weight.
