SIX WHITES

- ❑ 2018 Quinta do Mondeco, Vinho Branco

Encruzado, Gouveio, Cerceal, Bical

Dão

This Portuguese white has aromas of apples, pears and tropical fruit and mineral components. It has good intensity of flavor, with hints of herbs, a buttery touch and very surprisingly creamy texture.

13% alcohol by volume

$13

- ❑ 2020 Statti, Lamézia Bianco

50% Grecco, 50% Mantonico

Sweet pear, dusty florals and hints of incense lift up from the 2020 Bianco. It's soft upon entry, then gains a more tactile feel as a mix of minerals and candied lime washes across the palate. This tapers off, buzzing with residual acids, to a hint of green tropical citrus. Vegan

- ❑ 2021 Chateau Bizard, Blanc d'Amour

40% Grenache Blanc, 40% Viognier, 10% Marsanne, 10% Roussanne

A rich Rhone White. Aromatic, complex, fruity with aromas of pomelo, vineyard peach, lychee and acacia flower. Balanced, ample, smooth and fresh on the finish. 13% alcohol by volume

$16

- ❑ 2020 Domaine de la Chauvinière, Muscadet de Sèvre et-Maine Sur Lie

Classic Muscadet with aromas of white flowers (acacia) notes and some pear as well. Its mouth is mineral, saline and crispy with a sparkle, developing citrus notes before rounding itself off.

- ❑ 2020 Jacky Marteau, Touraine Sauvignon Blanc

The Loire's Touraine lies next door to prized and rather pricey Sancerre. Both specialise in Sauvignon Blanc, but from Touraine you spend a lot less. From a super vintage, this is a brilliantly fresh white. Forward grassy, citrusy aromas, the palate is very crisp and lemony, herbaceous notes with a creamy weight.

- ❑ 2020 Gianni Gagliardo, Fallegro Favorita Langhe

The Piemonte version of Vermentino grapes, the only one grown far from the sea in a continental climate which gives lot of character and makes it fresh and fragrant. Dried lemon, green apple and melon on the nose. It's full-bodied, layered and delicious. Just a hint of bitter lemon zest at the end.
