- ❑ 2020 J. Palacios Petalos

Mencia

Bierzo

From old hillside and hilltop vines from across Bierzo's (Spain) western edge, this excellent example of Mencia shines. This is such a tight and beautiful red with dark berry, stone and limestone character. Medium body, focused and refined. Linear and very long finish. A standard bearer for the region.

- ☐ 2021 San Marzano Edda Bianco $20
60% Chardonnay, 20% Fiano, 20% Wild Muscatel
Salento
An aromatic blend of Chardonnay, Moscatello, and Fiano that is flat out amazing for the price. The Moscatello matches the Chardonnay in richness, and adds notes of citrus fruits and white flowers, while the Fiano gives minerality from the layers of calcareous soils, the hallmark of whites from Puglia.

- ☐ 2022 Lyrarakis Gero-Deti $24
Melissaki
The Melissaki variety, is found in vineyards at the foothills of Mount Psiloritis in a family-owned vineyard, called “GERODETI”. Intense herbal aromas such as lemon balm surrounded by notes of white fleshed fruit. Elegant on the palate, the wine combines a crispy mouth with a remarkably dense texture.

- ☐ 2020 Quinta da Romaneira Gouveio $20
100% Gouveio
Portugal
An obscure Duoro White that has an intense and fruity aroma, pure, fresh and mineral. In the mouth it has a broad attack that reveals balance, freshness and a long finish; with soft notes of wild cedar.
