

6 Reds

- ❑ 2017 Les Tourelles de le Créé Knights Templar Vieilles Vignes

Cote de Beaune

Pinot Noir

Scoured from vineyards in Marranges and Monthelie, the Knights Templar is extremely expressive upon approach, displays strawberry and red raspberry aromas. The palate is awash with delightful red fruit flavors and fresh tobacco notes. Texturally, this young Burgundian Pinot Noir is silky, with soft tannins and balanced acidity that leads to a long and persistent finish.

$40

- ❑ 2018 Fond Croze Rasteau

80% Grenache, 10% Syrah, 10% Mourvedre

The full-bodied 2018 Rasteau offers up scents of raspberries and blackberries instead of plums and dark chocolate. Despite the wine's power (15.5% alcohol on the label), it's reasonably fresh and drinkable, with silky tannins and a lively finish.

$22

- ❑ 2018 Château Franc Grâce-Dieu Saint Émilion Grand Cru

Merlot, Cabernet Franc

A rich and complex Bordeaux with a tonic bouquet of blackberries and cherries, an interesting cedar and juniper berry nose, spicy berry palate, accompanied by easily recognizable woody notes, delicate tannins, medium build and a very long finish.

$38

- ❑ 2019 Ratti Ochetti Langhe Nebbiolo

Perfumed like scents of violets, red raspberries and red cherries sail through the olfactory senses with great intensity. Subtle vanillin cedar, earth and dried herb notes also chime in. Delightful red cherry and red raspberry fruits line the palate backed by beautiful freshness and a slightly rigid tannin structure which imparts some light grip onto the finish.

$20

- ❑ 2020 Nicosia "Sabbie Di Sutta" Cerasuolo di Vittoria

60% Nero d'Avola, 40% Frappato

A DOGC from Sicily, the Sabbie offers an intense fruity aroma featuring notes of raspberries and blackberries. Its palate is soft and well-balanced with a good structure. The floral and fruity notes, together with a warm, full-bodied and harmonious taste, create a perfect blend of persistence and drinkability.

Organic

$24

- ❑ 2018 Château Granchemin Monplaisir Saint-Estéphe

Merlot, Cabernet Sauvignon

A ripe, elegant and balanced wine, this has some of the firm tannins associated with young Saint-Estèphe along with rich, perfumed blackberry fruits.

$28

May Saturday Night Selections

4 whites

- ❑ 2021 Annesanti 'Ninfa del Nera' Bianco $24
Malvasia, Grechetto, Trebbiano
A fresh and flinty Italian blend from Umbria, with plenty of minerality and crunchy fruit. Aromatic, with notes of prickly pear and citrus, opening up with more green fruit on the palate and a savoury finish.
13% alcohol by volume

- ❑ 2021 Bojan Kobal 'Roots' Šipon-Furmint $25
Slovenia
This dry-farmed Furmint is bursting with exotic aromatics of honeysuckle, jasmine, and white flowers. On the palate, lively acidity bursting with white peach, Asian pear, nectarine and gingered minerality. This wine is perfect at cellar temperature.
13.5% alcohol by volume

- ❑ 2021 DeLille Cellars Chaleur Blanc $28
71% Sauvignon Blanc, 29% Sémillon
Crisp and vibrant yet fleshy, with pretty honeysuckle, fresh fig and apricot accents that build richness and structure on the supple finish.
Regularly $40, Now $28

- ❑ 2020 Domaine Daulny Sancerre $30
Sauvignon Blanc
Made from 40-year-old sauvignon blanc vines, this Sancerre captures the essence of the grape with floral, mineral and ground coffee bean aromas and grapefruit, white peach flavors.

May Saturday Night Selections